Allocation made by Tenth Finance Commission

7733. SHRI KRISHAN LAL SHARMA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) allocations made by the Tenth Finance Commission to the various States as per its recommendation;

(b) whether it is a fact that there was a lot of difference in the approach of Ninth and Tenth Finance Commission;

(b) if so, the main difference of approach between the two;

(d) the names of the States which have benefited most as a result of Tenth Finance Commission's recommendations;

(e) whether it is also a fact that the Tenth Finance Commission has charged the economic status of some States; if so, the main reasons therefor; and

(f) whether the States which have been benefited as a result of Tenth Finance Commission's recommendations did not fulfil the conditions of the time of Ninth Finance Commission?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY): (a) and (d) A statement is enclosed. (See below).

(b) Yes, Sir.

(c) Ninth Finance Commission was required to adopt a normative approach in assessing the receipts and expenditures inclusive of Plan revenue expenditure of States and Centre. However, the specific reference to normative approach was not there in the Terms of Reference of the Tenth Finance Commission and it was required to assess the revenue receipts and non-plan revenue expenditures of the States also keeping in view the potential for raising additional taxes.

(e) Among the non special category States, Andhra Pradesh and Bihar have been assessed as post devolution deficit States by the Tenth Finance Commission whereas these were assessed as post devolution surplus States by Ninth Finance Commission.

(f) State Governments send their forecast of revenue receipts and expenditure to the Commission for the period covered by its Terms of Reference. The Commission, after discussions with State Governments, adopts its own methodology for assessing the requirements of the States and devolves share in Central taxes and duties and grants to States based on certain objective criteria/formulae.
